

1/14 Casella Street Earlville QLD

1 1

What a unique find!! This stunning unit is situated in a character filled Queenslander style home which has been split into four well maintained units. Recently renovated to capture its beauty and charm this unit offers low maintenance living with the convenience of a short ten minute drive to the Cairns CBD.

Comprising of beautiful timber floors throughout this large one bedroom unit speaks of past treasures with original casement windows and solid timber kitchen (both of which have been lovingly restored), large open plan living space with an added bonus of large sun room which could easily be converted to a second bedroom.

With no rear neighbours and such a convenient location this is one property you can get excited about.

Price : $ 105,000
